For Immediate Release:

Los Angeles, CA, April 4, 2011-Wayne Gurnick, a celebrated wedding and event planner and owner of Moments by Wayne Gurnick, recently interviewed Karina Smirnoff, a famous dancer and 'Dancing With The Stars' professional, on his channel "Wedding Words of Wisdom" heard on Internet broadcasting website, Big Media USA. Mr. Gurnick has extensive knowledge in event planning ranging from locations to décor, and possesses an equally important ability to manage budgets and keep planning details in order. Mr. Gurnick's weddings have been featured in magazines such as Grace Ormonde Wedding Style and Party Flora. He has also designed events for high profile clients like AT&T, United Airlines, and The American Film Institute.

Mr. Gurnick carefully selects other well-respected professionals for the interviews that share his passion for creating stylish and elegant celebrations. He tailors his questions to highlight what is most important and unique about each individual and the companies that they represent. The over-riding emphasis and point of his interviews is to extract as much useful and poignant information for his avid listeners as possible.

In Mr. Gurnick's most recent interview with Ms. Smirnoff, the topic of how dance can transform one's body and life and give brides and grooms poise and confidence on their wedding day and beyond was discussed. Ms. Smirnoff is very familiar with the stress of planning a wedding and relies on her philosophy formed by years of discipline and dance to remember the important things in life and taking care of her body and soul. She is a bride herself, scheduled to marry her fiancé, baseball player Brad Penny in January 2012.

Ms. Smirnoff is quite an accomplished dancer--she and her dancing partner, actor Ralph Macchio finished the first two shows of 'Dancing with the Stars' at the top of the leader board with the highest score from the judges. Additionally Ms. Smirnoff is opening a dance studio in Woodland Hills, CA.
